Your Financial advisers

James Weir, Anthony Picone, Paul Grifa and Cameron Purdy will be your financial advisers.

They will provide the services to you as directors and representatives of Steward Wealth.

They have decades of experience in providing retail and institutional advice at some of the largest domestic and global investment banks in the market.

James, Anthony, Paul and Cameron act on behalf of Steward Wealth, which is responsible for the services that they provide.

The Financial advice process

We recognise that the objectives and personal circumstances of each client are different.

We will listen to you to understand what it is you want to achieve from the financial planning process. We will also ask questions to make sure we address all the relevant issues.

When we first provide advice to you it will be documented in a Statement of Advice, which you can take away and read.

The Statement of Advice will explain the basis for our advice, the main risks associated with the advice, the cost to you of implementing the advice, the benefits we receive and any conflicts of interest which may influence the advice.

For managed funds and insurance recommendations, we will also provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement. This contains information to help you understand the product being recommended.

At all times you are able to contact us and ask questions about the advice and products recommended.

You can provide instructions to us in writing, via email, by fax or over the phone.

Please note you are responsible for ensuring your instructions do reach us. Please ensure any urgent instructions are communicated via phone.

We may provide further advice to you to keep our recommendations up to date for changes in your circumstances, the law, the economy or products.

If we provide further advice it will typically be documented in a Record of Advice which we retain on file. You can request a copy of the RoA document at any time up to 7 years after the advice is provided.
